Kelly Becker

Kelly Becker, a Broker and Owner at Colorado Group Realty is an 8 year real estate veteran in Steamboat Springs; she has been involved in the real estate industry for over 15 years. Working along side the top Steamboat agents, Kelly represents a wide range of both buyers and sellers, and translates her in depth knowledge of the local market into successful transactions and wise investments for her clients...creating clients for life. Fueling Kelly's commitment to the Steamboat real estate market is her love for the city and all that Steamboat represents...outdoor recreation, quality schools, year round community, beautiful landscapes, abundant sunshine and ease of travel to and from the Yampa Valley.

Kelly graduated from the University of Notre Dame with a degree in Business Marketing and earned her Masters Degree in Sports Marketing. She migrated west 16 years ago with her architect/builder husband, Frank, to raise their family, and, subsequently began their careers in real estate. Her construction knowledge and staging expertise create a unique niche in her business and allow her to uniquely advise buyers and sellers. Kelly feels blessed to love her work, while living in a community she is proud of, and helping buyers and sellers make their Steamboat Springs dreams a reality.
